Small Grants to Support Research, Scholarly and Creative Activities

This program provides up to $400 to assist students in carrying out their research and creative activities during the academic year; for single projects involving 2 or more students the budget may be increased to $600. The award is designed to help defray the cost of travel, supplies, and other materials to conduct the project. It is not intended as salary for the student.

Faculty Development Opportunities

Integration of Undergraduate Research into the Curriculum

Two tracks available:
Full Proposals and Supplements to Existing Awards
This program supports the development of new courses and/or the revision of existing courses to include a substantial undergraduate research component. Awards of between $750 and $1000 will be made to support faculty during the summer 2014. This program is not intended to support minor revisions to seminar courses that already have a research requirement. Lower-level and upper-level courses are eligible. Supplements to existing awards are between $350 and $500.

Deadline for Full Proposals: May 14, 2014
Deadline for Supplements: Open

Workshops

A variety of workshops on topics related to undergraduate research are offered for the 2013-2014 academic year. For more details, see the website and announcements in the Buffalo State ‘Daily’.
